American Experience: The Presidents

August 8-11, August 15-18 at 9PM

As the 2016 presidential election approaches, American Experience helps us understand where we've come from with a marathon of their series on recent presidents. How well do you know these presidents? Take this quiz and find out.

August 8 & 9: John F. Kennedy, 35th, 1961-1963

He set the stage for space exploration and led the country through a prosperous period. But he neared nuclear disaster when he faced off against the USSR in Cuba and Vietnam, and was assassinated before the end of his term.

Which of these unique actions did JFK take?

- A. Pardoned the first Thanksgiving turkey
- B. Appointed a sibling to a cabinet post
- C. Appointed a sibling to the Supreme Court

August 10: Lyndon B. Johnson, 36th, 1963-1969

Sworn in after Kennedy's assassination, Johnson worked to promote civil rights, signing the Civil Rights Act and Voting Rights Act, as well as anti-poverty legislation. He also escalated military action in the Vietnam War.

What other legislation did Johnson sign?

- A. The Tomato Farmers' Act, establishing a federal oversight committee to define the color of tomatoes
- B. The Public Broadcasting Act of 1967, establishing the Corporation for Public Broadcasting, and eventually PBS and NPR
- C. Further Forward Legislation, ordering car manufacturers to increase gas mileage to 27 MPG by 1970

August 11: Richard Nixon, 37th, 1969-1974

Nixon ended American involvement in the Vietnam War, reopened relations with China, and saw America land on the moon. He limited federal government, legislated school desegregation, and established the EPA, but resigned after the Watergate scandal.

Which of these did Nixon do while in China?

- A. Pet a panda bear
- B. Shook hands with Premier Zhou Enlai
- C. Played ping pong with members of the Chinese National Team

August 15: Jimmy Carter, 39th, 1977-1981

Known for redefining the role of ex-presidents, Carter attempted to cut government spending during the energy crisis and recession. He also brokered peace between Israel and Egypt, but the last year of his presidency was overshadowed by the Iran Hostage Crisis and the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan.

How did Carter encourage Americans to conserve energy?

- A. Wore a sweater and turned off the White House's heaters
- B. Knitted blankets to keep people warm
- C. Encouraged reading by candlelight instead of watching TV

August 16 & 17: Ronald Reagan, 40th, 1981-1989

After a career in film, Reagan was the governor of California and the president who cut taxes and federal spending. He reduced nuclear stockpiles and famously told Mikhail Gorbachev to "tear down this wall" - only to have the wall come down after leaving office.

Which of these did Reagan do that no other president has done?

- A. Served in the armed forces
- B. Worked as a restaurant server
- C. Served as the head of a labor union

August 18: George H.W. Bush, 41th, 1989-1993

When the Berlin Wall fell, Bush helped welcome former Soviet countries back into the world. He raised taxes to pay off the Cold War deficit, signed the Americans with Disabilities Act and the Clean Air Act, and sent troops to keep Iraq from invading Kuwait.

What campaign slogan did Bush use?

- A. "Read my lips - no new taxes"
- B. "It's the economy, stupid"
- C. "Where's the beef?"

Let us know how well you did on the quiz on Facebook or Twitter! Feeling like you need to brush up on your presidential history? Tune in to American Experience: The Presidents on August 8-11, August 15-18 at 9PM.

Nature: Animal Reunions

August 24 at 8PM

Do wild animals remember the humans that rescue them? Discover how gorillas, elephants, cheetahs, and chimpanzees demonstrate emotions like joy, devotion, and love when they're reunited years later.

The Sacramento Zoo and some of their animal friends will join us in our studio for a live discussion about how zookeepers relate to their animals - and how the animals seem to recognize their keepers.

NEXT MONTH ON KVIE

9/11 Inside the Pentagon September 6 at 8PM

15 years after the terror attacks of September 11, 2001, hear first-hand accounts of the attack on the Pentagon. This documentary uses interviews with Pentagon personnel, first responders, aviation experts and journalists, as well as Department of Defense footage from inside the Pentagon to tell the story of heroism and perseverance in the face of unimaginable danger.

Churchill's Secret September 11 at 8PM

Based on true events, the film follows Winston Churchill at age 78, in his second term as prime minister, when he suffers a severe stroke during a state dinner. Whisked away from prying eyes to his country home, he relies on a remarkable young nurse to help him recover from near death. Michael Gambon (Harry Potter, Gosford Park) brings the pugnacious statesman to life.

I've loved public television since I was a kid.

The connection started with Sesame Street. From cooking shows to documentaries, I still love what KVIE offers.
