Last month, the President's proposed budget included the elimination of funding for the Corporation for Public Broadcasting. Losing that funding to KVIE would be a debilitating blow to a service that almost everyone in our region uses and that Americans overwhelmingly say they value. It's a bi-partisan fact that the American people believe in federal funding for public broadcasting. From national programs featuring history, drama, and science to local programs highlighting the best of our region, we take pride making sure you have the best in quality programs for the whole family to enjoy. Please help protect this valuable resource by joining Protect My Public Media at protectmypublicmedia.org and learn more about the value of PBS at valuepbs.org.

Stay tuned!

American Experience: The Great War

April 10, 11 & 12 at 9PM

On April 6, 1917, Congress declared war on Germany and entered the “war to end all wars.” One hundred years later, explore America’s participation in the global conflict in-depth: the attempts to avoid conflict, the wave of patriotism that stifled free speech and dissent, the diversity of America’s first mass conscripted army, and the concern for democracy at home as women worked for the vote and the nation emerged from bloody conflict.

KVIE's storytelling is important to the community.

Growing up watching Sesame Street and Mister Rogers encouraged my love of learning and sense of imagination.

World-class care, close to home

Amy Yip, D.O., M.P.H.
Health care innovator

In choosing UC Davis for your care, you'll find doctors who share a passion for advancing health. Like osteopath Amy Yip, who partners with patients to identify and eliminate barriers to good health.

This is health through innovation.
