Have you ever seen the famous Laguna Pageant?

The Laguna Beach Pageant of the Masters

3 Days • July 30 – August 1

California's premier cultural arts event

Many California residents have never seen one of the country's most spectacular cultural arts events, even though it's only a short plane flight away.

The Laguna Pageant of the Masters and The Festival of the Arts, is now approaching its 85th season. It is best described as "humans portraying art," but it's not that simple. It is simply amazing.

Our package includes two nights at the Newport Marriott Hotel, tickets to the pageant, a pre-show tour and dinner, plus a post-show lecture the following morning to learn more about how it is all done. 3 meals, added attractions and airfare included. $1495 p.p./dbl.occ., $1675 single

The White House's proposed budget includes eliminating funding for the Corporation for Public Broadcasting - which would adversely affect the service you receive and support. Last month, I shared how you can help protect funding by visiting protectmypublicmedia.org and valuepbs.org. When you speak up with the power of your voice AND your continued financial support, you make possible all of the great programs we have this month - a season finale for Call the Midwife, two specials from MASTERPIECE: Dark Angel and King Charles III, Nature: Dolphins - Spy in the Pod, the National Memorial Day Concert, and more. Thank you for your stewardship that ensures the great programming will continue.

Stay tuned!

Viewer Feedback

"The program guide on my TV is different from the OnSix guide. Which one is correct and what do I record?"

- Brenda in Vacaville

The on-screen electronic program guides are managed by the cable and satellite providers. KVIE sends them our schedule; however, the information is not always kept current. The best way to view KVIE's schedule is at kvie.org/schedule - this is the most up-to-date schedule. To record the program you want, we suggest relying on the times from KVIE's online schedule.

Public television isn't just your home for drama, history, science, children's programming, and news: It's a public good for our community. Funding for public media represents less than 0.01% of the federal budget - about $1.35 for each American - but is an essential source of funding for local stations like KVIE. You can help protect this funding and our station's future by visiting protectmypublicmedia.org, where you can sign up to get involved and invite others to take action.

Victorian Slum House

Tuesdays at 8PM

Travel back in time to the Victorian era as a group of modern day families, couples, and individuals recreate life in London's East End, experiencing a new decade each week. Discover just how difficult life was in the 1860s through 1900s for millions of urban poor as they struggle to pay the rent and put food on the table. It's a reality show like no other, taking you into the harsh realities of the past - and the social reforms that helped improve their lives.

American Masters of Food

May 19 & 26 at 10PM

Peer into the kitchens of two of America's greatest chefs, James Beard and Jacques Pépin, in two new tributes from American Masters. Discover how James Beard, a man equally fond of haute cuisine and ham sandwiches, blazed the trail for television chefs and the farm-to-table movement (5/19 10PM). Then, follow Jacques Pépin from young immigrant with movie-star looks and ease in the kitchen to beloved food icon (5/26 10PM).

The Great British Baking Show Begins June 16 at 9PM

Mary Berry, Paul Hollywood, Sue Perkins, and Mel Giedroyc return for a new season of 30 brand-new challenges for Britain's amateur bakers. Ten new bakers face down cakes, breads, desserts, and more, all in pursuit of the perfect bake to impress the judges and be named star baker - and, eventually, best amateur baker.
