PBS KVIE President's MESSAGE

Thank you for making 2019 great on PBS KVIE! You made two important anniversaries possible – 60 years of service as your community's PBS station and the 50th anniversary of going to the moon showcased in our Summer of Space programs. Because you support KVIE, the next 60 years and beyond will see more great programs. Ken Burns' Country Music gave us an unparalleled look at one of America's truly unique art forms. Victoria on MASTERPIECE dazzled us with court life and historical intrigue. And Antiques Roadshow visited Sacramento with a stop at our own crown jewel – the Crocker Art Museum – promising three episodes in February and March of next year. Your donations make these programs and more possible. As we approach the end of the year, please continue to be generous in supporting what you love to watch. Visit kvie.org/yearend2019 to make your year-end gift.

Stay tuned!

"I recently made a donation and requested a thank you gift for my daughter-in-law and I will need it before Christmas. Could you expedite the shipping?"
- K.C. in Sacramento

This holiday season, PBS KVIE will be working closely with our vendors to get our thank-you gifts shipped out as quickly as possible. Our standard time for shipping is 4 to 6 weeks, but because we rely on outside vendors to fulfill your thank you gift requests, we can neither expedite nor promise that the item will arrive by a certain date. However, we can email or mail you a gift certificate to give to the recipient in case your package does not arrive in time. If you would like a certificate, please email member@kvie.org or call Donor Services at 916-641-3500.

2019 IN REVIEW

Thank you for spending 2019 with PBS KVIE – for sharing in all the discovery, exploration, investigation, and conversation. From drama to science, from public affairs to local stories, thank you for joining us on this journey.

JANUARY Victoria on MASTERPIECE took us on another adventure of royal proportions, and Doc Martin returned for a grumpy new season.

FEBRUARY We spent a beautiful day in the Neighborhood of Make Believe in Won't You Be My Neighbor?, a tribute to Fred Rogers' beloved series. We celebrated 60 years of service to the community during KVIE's landmark anniversary.

MARCH The stork arrived with a new season of Call the Midwife, and we met inspiring women asserting and defending their human rights in Women, War & Peace.

APRIL We went inside the Golden State's school system with new episodes of Inside California Education, Sir David Attenborough taught us the importance of the egg in Nature: The Egg, and Les Misérables received the MASTERPIECE treatment.

MAY We welcomed Antiques Roadshow for a live appraisal event at the Crocker Art Museum (episodes coming in February 2020). And Rob on the Road celebrated the people helping our region rise to new heights.

JUNE A new season of Endeavour on MASTERPIECE delivered chilling new mysteries, and we rocked out to a 1999 throwback concert from the late "Purple Rain" maverick in Prince: Rave Un2 the Year 2000.

JULY One small step and one giant leap brought us to the moon 50 years ago and we honored the anniversary with our Summer of Space – including shows like American Experience: Chasing the Moon, 8 Days to the Moon and Back, NOVA: The Planets, and more.

Your support makes all this possible – thank you! Please continue to support television at its best and donate to PBS KVIE before December 31. Visit kvie.org/yearend2019 to give online or call 1-800-270-6601.

AUGUST Animal Babies: First Year on Earth stole our hearts, and we celebrated 50 years since Woodstock with an immersive American Experience documentary.

SEPTEMBER Ken Burns brought us deep into the roots of a truly American genre and followed its evolution to the '90s in Country Music. MASTERPIECE favorites Poldark and The Durrells in Corfu began their final seasons.

OCTOBER We celebrated our region's talented artists with the KVIE Art Auction, investigated the murder of Jamal Khashoggi with FRONTLINE, and we got to know Congresswoman Doris Matsui in The Journey.

NOVEMBER We watched the stories of some of Sacramento's homeless residents in Searching For Hope – Homeless in Sacramento. And Inside California Education took us inside the Golden State's unique community college system.

DECEMBER We'll get into the holiday spirit with seasonal shows all month long and usher in the New Year with the New York Philharmonic's orchestral renditions of Stephen Sondheim classics.

The Ornament of the World

December 17 at 8PM
Retrace a 700-year period in medieval Spain, from the 8th through 15th centuries, during which Muslims, Christians, and Jews – though they competed and sometimes fought – managed to sustain relationships that enabled them to coexist, collaborate, and flourish - building a common cultural identity. Filmed on location in Córdoba, Seville, Toledo, and Granada, you'll go back into history to discover what made this rare and fruitful collaboration possible – and what ultimately tore it apart.

Handel's Messiah

December 22 at 8PM

Who was George Frideric Handel? In this special docu-drama narrated by Jane Seymour, you'll discover his meteoric rise to celebrity composer at just 18 years old. Among his vast repertoire of prodigious musical masterpieces, his most notable composition is his oratorio "Messiah." Following a 1742 debut performance of "Messiah" in Dublin, Ireland, the work became synonymous with the idea of redemption – a message pertinent to all generations, regardless of personal beliefs.

Sanditon on MASTERPIECE
Premieres January 12 at 9PM
In 1817, Jane Austen started a witty novel set in a seaside town. She never finished it. Now, screenwriter Andrew Davies (Les Misérables, Mr. Selfridge) has picked up the story of Charlotte Heywood, a spirited young woman who moves from a rural town to a seaside resort to try and make her fortune. But as Sanditon itself tries to move up in the world, not everyone there can be trusted.

Thank you for helping PBS KVIE meet the future. As 2020 begins, your support continues to bring our community the best in educational and entertaining programming – on antenna, cable, satellite, online, and through the PBS Video app.

2019 was a phenomenal year. And 2020 will be even better. Don't miss three episodes of Antiques Roadshow filmed at the Crocker Art Museum, expeditions to the poles with NOVA, trusted and award-winning election coverage from PBS NewsHour, and so much more – plus new local events and more ways to watch. All of this is because of you.

We hope in this season of giving that you'll use the occasion to give a special year-end gift. Call 1-800-270-6601 or go to kvie.org/yearend2019 or send your gift to 2030 W. El Camino Ave., Sacramento, CA 95833. And it's a good time to consider giving appreciated stock, send a gift direct from your IRA, or give from a Donor-Advised Fund.

Again – thank you – your support helps the community we share.
