PBS KVIE President's MESSAGE

Ken Burns returns to PBS KVIE with an all-new documentary about one of boxing's greatest legends in Muhammad Ali (starts 9/19). While there's drama in the ring, there's much more! Don't miss Guilt on Masterpiece (starts 9/5) in which two brothers try to cover up a crime. For history lovers and knowledge seekers, investigate the past and future with American Experience: Sandra Day O'Connor - The First (9/13), The Future of Work (starts 9/1), and In Their Own Words featuring former U.S. President Jimmy Carter (9/28). Your curiosity about the natural world will be met with shows about wild rabbits in Nature: Remarkable Rabbits (9/15) and the mystery of bats in NOVA: Bat Superpowers (9/15). Closer to home, explore the history and art of Sacramento's RCAF in the local documentary ViewFinder: Royal Chicano Air Force - Art and Activism (9/15). Thank you for supporting KVIE, your PBS station.

Stay tuned!

The Future of Work

September 1, 8 & 15 at 10PM
Since early 2020, U.S. unemployment has been at a rate not seen for more than a century, and a majority of Americans now report economic distress and concern about the future for themselves and their families. In this 3-part series, explore the monumental changes in the workplace and the long-term impact on workers, employers, educators, and communities. Is the U.S. about to enter a future of entrenched haves and have-nots? How do we protect and preserve opportunities for work that sustain families, communities, and the nation – a fundamental aspect of the American Dream?

Guilt on Masterpiece
September 5 and 12 at 9PM

"It's not the crime, it's the cover-up" goes the old saying. But that didn't stop brothers Max and Jake from hiding their guilt after running into an elderly pedestrian during an inebriated drive home from a wedding. Although the brothers are no longer close, they are now co-conspirators in a crime that grows in severity as they dig a deeper and deeper pit of evasions and desperate stratagems. Mark Bonnar (Unforgotten on Masterpiece) and Jamie Sives (To the Ends of the Earth) star as Max and Jake in this darkly absorbing tale of rascality and deceit set in Edinburgh.

American Experience: Sandra Day O'Connor – The First

September 13 at 9PM

Explore the life of Sandra Day O'Connor, the Supreme Court's first female justice. Born in an era when women were expected to become homemakers, O'Connor could not convince a single law firm to interview her after graduating from Stanford Law School. Turning to public service, she eventually served in the Arizona state senate and became a judge before being nominated to the Supreme Court by Ronald Reagan in 1981. O'Connor served for 25 years and, as a Republican, was the critical swing vote on cases involving some of the 20th century's most controversial issues.

ViewFinder: Royal Chicano Air Force – Art and Activism
September 15 at 7PM
Discover the story of Sacramento's own Royal Chicano Air Force. Comprised of the sons and daughters of migrant farmworker families, these men and women became Chicano poets, painters, muralists, and political activists devoted to social justice, especially the farm labor movement in the 1960s and '70s. In this new ViewFinder, explore the ways they used art, poetry, and music to advance the cause of social justice and how these artists' indelible legacy continues today.

NOVA: Bat Superpowers
September 15 at 9PM
A reservoir for viruses, such as COVID-19, the bat is the subject of much fascination. Come along as a consortium of international researchers try to unravel the secrets of this little animal. This project, on an unprecedented scale, is beginning to bear fruit with discoveries about bats' extraordinary lifespan and resistance to viruses and diseases. And the hope of finding answers to this ultimate question: Are bats' biological superpowers transposable to humans?

MUHAMMAD ALI

A FILM BY KEN BURNS
SARAH BURNS & DAVID MCMAHON

September 19 – 22 at 8PM

Follow the life of legendary boxer Muhammad Ali, the 3-time heavyweight boxing champion who captivated billions of fans with his combination of speed, agility, and power in the ring and his charm, wit, and outspokenness outside of it. Muhammad Ali, a new 4-part documentary from acclaimed filmmakers Ken Burns, Sarah Burns, and David McMahon, traces Ali's life as an iconic and inspirational athlete as well as his personal life and complex worldviews.

At the height of his fame, Ali challenged Americans' racial prejudices, religious biases, and notions about what roles celebrities and athletes play in our society and inspired people all over the world with his message of pride and self-affirmation.

Drawing from an extraordinary trove of archival footage and photographs, contemporary music, and the insights and memories of eyewitnesses, this series presents a sweeping portrait of an American icon who called himself – and was considered by many to be – “the greatest of all time.”

Muhammad Ali will air on KVIE one episode nightly beginning Sunday, September 19 through Wednesday, September 22. Episodes will premiere at 8PM and repeat at 10PM. The series will also be available to stream for free in its entirety on the PBS Video app starting the evening of September 19 through October 9 before moving to streaming with PBS KVIE Passport.

American Experience: Citizen Hearst

September 27 & 28 at 9PM

Delve into the life and world of William Randolph Hearst, the famed media tycoon of the early 20th century, in a new 2-part documentary. The model for Orson Welles' "Citizen Kane," Hearst used his vast media empire – 28 newspapers, a movie studio, a syndicated wire service, radio stations, and 13 magazines – to achieve unprecedented political power, forever transforming the media's role in American life and politics. Hearst is also known for his extravagant home in San Simeon, where he used to entertain the elite of Hollywood, politics, and sports.

PBS KVIE Passport PICKS

Genius by Stephen Hawking

Now streaming
Why are we here? Are we alone? Over six episodes, Professor Stephen Hawking challenges a selection of volunteers to think like the greatest geniuses in history and solve some of humanity's toughest and most enduring questions. Educational and entertaining, this series helps ordinary people understand the science behind the big questions of life, the universe, and time travel and lets them try their hand at thinking like a genius.

Frankie Drake Mysteries, Season 4

Available to stream starting September 3
From the wilderness to the world of high society, from an underground cabaret to a candy factory, Frankie Drake's all-female detective agency investigates murders, kidnappings, heists, and poisonings in 1920s Toronto in the newest season of Frankie Drake Mysteries. Catch up or re-watch the first three seasons before the new season becomes available.

NOVA: The Cannabis Question

September 29 at 9PM

As more U.S. states move toward legalizing cannabis, NOVA reports on the latest science investigating the plant and its medical benefits and risks. Long-demonized, cannabis has been decriminalized in over 30 states, legalized in many, and is frequently marketed as a medicine. Fifty-five million Americans say they currently use it, yet there's little scientific investigation of its effects. Follow scientists as they examine the potential benefits and risks posed by cannabis use, as well as the decades of criminalization disproportionately targeting communities of color.

Call the Midwife, Season 10
October 3 at 8PM
The beloved drama returns for a tenth season! Taking place in the East End of London, England, Call the Midwife follows the nurses, midwives, and nuns of Nonnatus House, who assist the expectant mothers of Poplar, providing the poorest women with the best possible care. Kicking off in 1966, season 10 of Call the Midwife sees the nuns and midwives attempt to secure the financial future of Nonnatus House while dealing with an array of difficult cases, including acute myeloid leukemia and the long-term health effects of exposure to nuclear radiation.
