American Experience: The Movement and the "Madman"

March 28 at 9PM

Uncover the story of how two antiwar protests in the fall of 1969 – the largest the country had ever seen – caused then President Nixon to cancel what he called his "madman" plans for a massive escalation of the U.S. war in Vietnam, including his threats to use nuclear weapons. At the time, protestors had no idea what they had prevented and how many lives they had saved.

Iconic America: Our Symbols & Stories with David Rubenstein April 26 at 10PM

Examine the history of America through some of its most iconic symbols, objects, and places in a new 8-part series. From flags and statues to revered landmarks, these seemingly familiar items have deep, significant, and often surprising origins. In the premiere episode, David Rubenstein, an acclaimed philanthropist and lifelong student of history, travels to Fenway Park to explore America's greatest pastime: baseball. The iconic ballpark is home to the Boston Red Sox and, with it, a story of a city's loyalty to its team through thick and thin.

Tom Jones on Masterpiece April 30 at 9PM

A timeless romantic comedy gets an exciting update in Masterpiece's 4-part adaptation of Henry Fielding's classic novel "The History of Tom Jones, A Foundling." A rollercoaster story of the title character's complicated journey to find love, "Tom Jones" has delighted and scandalized readers since its 1749 publication. Solly McLeod stars as the handsome, resourceful Tom with Sophie Wilde as the beautiful, bright, and seemingly unattainable Sophia Western. He is a foundling of uncertain parentage, while she is an heiress. In 18th-century England, their class differences make their journey to find each other complicated and treacherous.
