WHERE SONG AND SERMON MEET

GOSPEL

HOSTED BY HENRY LOUIS GATES, JR.

February 12 & 13 at 9PM

Dig deep into the origin story of Black spirituality through song and sermon in the newest historical series from Henry Louis Gates, Jr.

Musical styles come and go, but there's one sound that has been a constant source of strength, courage, and wisdom from the pulpit to the choir lofts on any given Sunday. Gospel music has become the dominant form of African American religious expression and provides a soundtrack of healing and uplift to those at the front lines of protest and change.

Coming out of slavery, blending with the blues tradition, and soaring to new heights during the Great Migration, gospel music has defined and inspired generations. Thanks to artists like Mahalia Jackson and Kirk Franklin, these deeply meaningful songs have reached the present day, enjoying a new heyday from the last century to today.

Before delving into the series, tune into Gospel Live! on February 9 at 9PM for a sampling of some of the genre's most influential tunes.

So Much Sunday Drama!

Three of our favorite Sunday dramas are drawing to a close this month, but fret not! We have plenty of programming that will make the transition less painful.

On February 11, take a break from the Super Bowl – or ditch it altogether, we won't judge – with a marathon of season 4 of Miss Scarlet and The Duke on Masterpiece starting at 2PM leading up to the season finale at 8PM.

Then the first season of Funny Woman takes a bow at 10PM, with the team reuniting to record a triumphant last show after Barbara's banishment to Blackpool.

Before you weep over saying farewell to all the heartwarming hijinks on All Creatures Great and Small on Masterpiece, take heart – the season 4 finale on February 18 at 9PM is sure to delight as Skeldale House prepares for a new arrival.

Catch up on all three series with PBS KVIE Passport! All episodes are available to stream with the Passport member benefit. Go to kvie.org/passport to discover how to watch.
