IF WE CAN OPEN UP HEARTS,
LET'S OPEN OUR HEARTS.

Believe in Better.

Better health takes more than health care.

There is no substitute for genuine human contact, connection and love. Especially for our neighbors facing mental health obstacles. That's why we're proud to offer Sacramento's first comprehensive trauma recovery center, helping trauma survivors manage anxiety and depression through empowerment and the belief that things can — and will — get better. We've also introduced new psychiatric training programs to address provider shortages and support culturally relevant care in our communities.
