Viewer Voice

"The schedule on my TV differs from the OnSix guide. Which one is correct and what do I record?"

–Donald in Colfax

The on-screen electronic program guides are managed by the cable and satellite providers. KVIE sends them our schedule around the same time we send the OnSix Guide to the press; however, occasional schedule changes may occur afterward. We recommend checking kvie.org/schedule for the most up-to-date information when viewing or recording a program.

ABRIDGED PBS KVIE

Your source for local news

Ryan Lillis
Associate General Manager,
News

Northern California has so much to celebrate. From our natural wonders and world-renowned food scene to our growing economy and standing as the seat of power for the nation's most populous state, this region is a truly remarkable place to call home. We are also facing severe challenges. Many communities are being left behind, vital support for education is in danger, and our environment is constantly under threat. That's why PBS KVIE has launched Abridged, a new digital news and information service that seeks to authentically tell the stories of our region. Without a locally owned, nonpartisan source of news independent from other organizations or institutions, we'll drift further apart and our communities will suffer.

Abridged.org launched on Sept. 16, offering a free daily email newsletter with stories we hope will help you live your best life. We also produce a food and drink newsletter every Tuesday called "City of Treats," and our "Cultural Capital" newsletter on Thursdays tells you about all the amazing events happening in our region.

Importantly, content in our newsletters and at abridged.org is free and supported by donors. We believe in the power of public service journalism and think it should be accessible to all. We are in service to you, the community, just as KVIE has been for more than 65 years.

We invite you to sign up for one of our newsletters by visiting our website. And if you believe in our mission and want to see us expand, please make a donation so that we can deliver even more trusted news and information.

Visit abridged.org for more.

Discover a true story of adventure, vulnerability, and healing. Follow Jim Markel Sr., a retired Green Beret, as he voyages from Montana to Vietnam for the first time since the war. In retracing his steps with his adult son, he reflects on his past actions as both a soldier and parent. Secrets of the Dead: Picturing Shakespeare

November 12 at 10PM
There are only two accepted representations of William Shakespeare that are considered “official” — but could a portrait that has been hanging over a family's mantelpiece for the last 50 years be the third? British window washer Steven Wadlow, whose father received the portrait in the 1960s, is on the hunt to prove the painting is indeed genuine. If so, it could be worth as much as $200 million.

THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

A FILM BY
KEN BURNS, SARAH BOTSTEIN & DAVID SCHMIDT

November 16 – 21 at 8PM

Discover how America's founding turned the world upside-down in the new 6-part documentary directed by Ken Burns, Sarah Botstein, and David Schmidt.

Explore the virtues and contradictions of the war and the birth of the United States. Thirteen British colonies on the Atlantic Coast rose in rebellion, won their independence, and established a new form of government that radically reshaped the continent and inspired centuries of democratic movements around the globe.

Experience the war through the memories of those who experienced it: the rank-and-file Continental soldiers and American militiamen, Patriot political and military leaders, British Army officers, American Loyalists, Native soldiers and civilians, enslaved and free African Americans, German soldiers in the British service, French and Spanish allies, and various civilians living in North America, including many made refugees by the war.

All episodes will be available to stream on our PBS KVIE app starting the night of the premiere.

Mushroom Brie Bake

Developed by Sharon Profis

Ingredients

- 8 oz. thinly sliced brown mushrooms (crimini, baby bella, etc.)
- 1 shallot, diced
- 3 sprigs of thyme
- 3 cloves of garlic, minced
- 1 1/2 tbsp. balsamic vinegar
- 1 1/2 tbsp. unsalted butter
- 1 wheel of brie
- 1 roll of puff pastry
- 1 egg

Directions

1. In a sauté pan over medium heat, melt 1 1/2 tbsp. of butter. Add mushrooms, shallot, minced garlic, and thyme sprigs. Season with salt and pepper, and add 1 1/2 tbsp. of balsamic vinegar. Cook until mushrooms are soft and reduced.
2. Preheat oven to 425 degrees. Trim the top rind off the brie. Place the brie on a parchment paper-lined baking sheet. Top the brie with the cooked mushroom mixture. Cover with the puff pastry. Carefully flip the pastry-wrapped brie upside down and fold the edges of the puff pastry to seal the brie and mushroom mixture inside. Flip it back over and place it on the baking sheet.
3. Beat the egg with 1 tbsp. of water to make an egg wash. Brush the top of the puff pastry with the egg wash. Gently score the top of the puff pastry with a knife.
4. Bake for 20 minutes, or until the puff pastry is golden brown.
5. Serve warm with crackers, and enjoy!

Kanenon:we – Original Seeds

November 26 at 9PM

Explore the grassroots Indigenous seed sovereignty movement, and meet Haudenosaunee women reclaiming their roles as traditional seed keepers honoring the work of their ancestors to ensure their survival for future generations. Prior to European contact, there was a rich and vibrant diversity of foods; however, land theft, relocation, and food warfare contributed to a disconnection from traditional foods and seeds.

Happiness

December 14 at 8PM
Broadway director and golden boy
Charlie Summers has come home to New Zealand — and he's devastated. After 20 years working his way up to the top of the musical theater world, he has found himself back in his childhood bedroom and back helping his mother, Gaye, at the local community musical theater. The eclectic cast and crew there may lack professional skills, but they certainly don't lack passion.
