Obama's Presidential Library in Chicago – Update

4 Days • January, April, June

- Our first trip will be in late January 2027. Yes, it will be cold! In addition to seeing the new Obama Presidential Center, the dates were chosen to correspond with the production of Oh, Mary!, the rather irreverent play that re imagines Mary Todd Lincoln. The trip will also feature a day to visit your choice of the Art Institute, Field Museum of Natural History or the Adler Aquarium.
- Our second/third/fourth departures will be in a milder season next year (April, May, June) and will focus on Chicago's long history as our nation's architectural leader and trendsetter, perhaps even a game at Wrigley Field! Call and place your name on the list now and we will notify you when the trips are announced in September.

ABRIDGED PBS KVIE

Your source for local news

Ryan Lillis
Associate General Manager,
News

Abridged by PBS KVIE accomplished a remarkable showing at the California Journalism Awards, taking home 16 honors — including six first-place wins, the most of any professional news organization of our size in the Sacramento region.

The California News Publishers Association, whose contest draws entries from more than 500 news organizations statewide, recognizes the best journalism produced across print and digital platforms each year. What made Abridged's showing especially notable: the newsroom launched on September 16, 2025, meaning it was judged on less than four months of published work — competing against outlets with decades of history behind them.

The first-place recognitions spanned a wide range of coverage.

Digital Audience Producer Jordan Mata was honored for a story on the resurgence of local independent bookstores. Senior Food Editor Benjy Egel won for reporting on the anxieties felt by Latin American visitors to the Terra Madre Americas food festival. Contributor Phillip Reese was recognized for uncovering that nearly 19,000 school-age children across the region are homeless.

Senior Correspondent and Host Rob Stewart earned top honors for a profile of West Sacramento Councilmember Quirina Orozco and her experience with a terminal cancer diagnosis. Reporter Felicia Alvarez was recognized for her investigation into the delays plaguing Highway 50 construction. And a Video Journalism award went to the KVIE team behind the "Fame to Fork" series, which took viewers behind the scenes with well-known Sacramento attorney Anh Phoong at one of her favorite lunch spots.

Abridged also received a second-place award and two third-place honors in additional categories.

For a newsroom built on the idea that a well-informed community is a stronger one, the recognition affirms what members and donors have supported from the start: journalism that is deeply reported, community-rooted and focused on helping people understand the place they call home. It's a fitting extension of KVIE's more than 65 years of public service — and a sign of what's ahead for local journalism in the Sacramento region.

Visit abridged.org for more.

Totally Tudor

Step back in time to explore the impact and influence of the House of Tudor, a royal dynasty that held the throne of England from 1485 to 1603, and whose monarchs became some of the most well-known kings and queens in history.

Venture into the lion's den on Inside the Court of Henry VIII, airing on August 17 at 10PM. Part Renaissance prince, part medieval tyrant, Henry VIII is the most famous of English kings. Go beyond the facade of his glamorous court to understand the danger and intrigue that routinely cost courtiers their heads.

On Chatsworth Through Time, airing August 24 at 10PM, visit the historic estate that once held the imprisoned Mary, Queen of Scots, and represented Pemberley on Pride and Prejudice. Marvel at Chatsworth House's architecture, landscape, and significant art collection. Trace the story of Chatsworth through 500 years of history starting in the Tudor period.

Then immerse yourself in Tudor court politics on Wolf Hall on Masterpiece, available to stream with PBS KVIE Passport. This lavish, award-winning adaptation of Hilary Mantel's fictionalized biography of Thomas Cromwell stars Mark Rylance (The Other Boleyn Girl), Damian Lewis (The Forsyte Saga), Claire Foy (The Crown), and Kate Phillips (Miss Scarlet on Masterpiece).

The Atomic Era

August marks 80 years since the establishment of the Atomic Energy Commission and 81 years since the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. On August 25, revisit key developments of the atomic era, and examine the impact of nuclear weapons on their victims, society, and global diplomacy.

Explore how the U.S. government sought to manipulate the truth about the bombings of Japanese cities Hiroshima and Nagasaki during World War II in an encore of American Experience: Bombshell, airing at 8PM. Through propaganda, censorship, and the co-opting of the press, the government presented a benevolent picture of atomic power. Uncover the efforts of a group of intrepid reporters to let the world know the truth.

At 9:30PM, chronicle America's development of the most destructive invention in human history in an encore of The Bomb. Examine the science used to harness the incredible power of atomic weapons. Listen in as historians, scientists, pilots, and others share their experiences of the dawn of the atomic age.

And witness the human fallout of the first and last atomic bombs used in warfare on Atomic People, available to stream with PBS KVIE Passport. Through personal accounts with archival footage, hear from the only remaining survivors on Earth of a nuclear attack.
