A little about a long-standing local travel company...

In 1979, a new travel company was born in Sacramento. Originally known as Sports Travel, we took fans to baseball games in Oakland and San Francisco. Later, as our travelers asked us to take them to other destinations, we became Sports Leisure Travel, and finally, in 1998 Sports Leisure Vacations.

Did you know less than 1% of all businesses make it past 40 years? We have done our best to honor your 47 years of support, and regularly invest in our community. Besides Broadway Sacramento, The Music Circus and Public Television (KVIE Channel 6), we proudly share our profits by supporting dozens of local charities and arts organizations. Does the company you travel with support our community?

When you call us on the phone (during business hours), we answer. We don't have a "bot" deflecting calls. We aren't a big, over-stuffed, on-line travel company. We are local folks who have proudly built a following over three generations, selling tour packages we create ourselves. Same Owner for 47 years. Same President for 33 years. Many longtime staff members. There is no substitute for experience. It's been a wonderful journey, and here's to OUR future together!

Why does my TV show a different schedule than the OnSix Guide?

– Eileen in Colfax

The on-screen electronic program guides are managed by the cable and satellite providers. KVIE sends them our schedule around the same time we send the OnSix Guide to the press; however, occasional schedule changes may occur afterward. We recommend checking kvie.org/schedule for the most up-to-date information when viewing or recording a program.

ABRIDGED PBS KVIE

Your source for local news

Ryan Lillis
Associate General Manager,
News

After less than a year of serving the Sacramento region, Abridged by PBS KVIE is building something rarely seen in local news today: a product genuinely loved by the community it serves.

Over the past few weeks, we surveyed Abridged readers to gauge what you value most about our service and what we can improve. More than 400 readers responded to the survey; that alone tells me how strongly you value the work we're doing. Thank you!

The results inspire me. Nearly 95% of you said you were both satisfied with the work we're doing and would recommend Abridged to someone you know. Roughly 94% trust us to provide this community with reliable information and, perhaps most importantly, 90% of you said you feel more informed about this community because of our journalism.

You also come to us for a variety of reasons: 74% of you place high value on our coverage of local governments, while more than half also say you enjoy our coverage of food and arts and culture. A remarkable four out of 10 readers told us they have visited a local business or restaurant after reading about it in Abridged — a true sign that we're delivering on our pledge to help this region thrive.

What makes these responses so striking is how they compare to broader views about the media. A Pew Research Center study earlier this year found that 48% of Americans find that most of the news they come across is not relevant to their daily lives. A separate Gallup poll found that just 28% of Americans have a "great deal" or "fair amount" of trust in the news media.

As we continue to expand, we're adding to our team of journalists to better cover topics, issues and communities you have told us you value. That expansion is only possible because of your support.

This news service belongs to all of us. Thank you for being part of it.

Visit abridged.org for more.

American Experience: Jesse James

October 13 at 9PM

Uncover the true story of an outlaw who captured the imagination of generations of Americans. The myth of Jesse James is one of the nation's most familiar — and most fictitious. James has been called America's Robin Hood, yet he robbed rich and poor with equal fervor. He was known as a gunfighter, but his victims were almost always unarmed. Less heroic than brutal, James was a member of a vicious band of Missouri guerrillas during the Civil War. In a life steeped in prolific violence and bloodshed, he met what was perhaps the most fitting end.

New Science & Nature All Night Long

On October 14, get ready for a night of all-new primetime science and nature programs, featuring familiar faces on a new adventure, a deep dive into the history of species on Earth, and an archaeological dig shedding new light on an overlooked kingdom.

Join Elmo and the Sesame Street gang on a safari on Nature: Sesame Street and the Great Elephant Adventure, airing at 8PM. After adopting an orphaned elephant online, Elmo, Abby, and Nina travel to the Sheldrick Wildlife Trust in Kenya to meet the young elephant and her keepers, plus some of nature's most iconic wildlife, including lions, zebras, giraffes, and hippos.

At 9PM, experience the epic story of life on Earth as never before on Evolution, the new 5-part series from NOVA. In the premiere, discover how the story of the dolphin reveals how intelligence evolved, transforming simple perception into the most powerful organ on Earth — a brain capable of thought, communication, and empathy.

And uncover the influence of an ancient city at the heart of a trading empire on Secrets of the Dead: Africa's Golden City, airing at 10PM. Great Zimbabwe was one of the most prominent civilizations of the African continent. For hundreds of years, it was dismissed by explorers, but new archeological discoveries reveal the true scope of the ancient city's global importance

Chronicle the story of a sharpshooter who pulled herself out of poverty and became a symbol of the Wild West. Born in Ohio, the self-taught Annie Oakley picked up a gun at age 15 not to become a superstar, but to save her family from destitution. Adopted in 1884 by Native American Chief Sitting Bull, she charmed the Prince of Prussia and entertained the likes of Oscar Wilde and Queen Victoria. Oakley won fame and fortune in a man's world for never missing a shot.
